Mission Statement

Sackville College is an Almshouse offering affordable dwelling space, for independent living, to older local people of limited means. It is a Grade 1 Listed building. The aims of this small independent charity are:

- To care for the buildings, fabric and furnishings which are of architectural and historical importance within the town and local community.
- To continue to provide affordable independent living accommodation for older local people of limited means as directed in the will of Robert Sackville, 2nd Earl of Dorset, in 1609.
- To open Sackville College to visitors including Schools and local groups for enjoyment, education, appreciation of its history, and to create links with the community.

(No care facilities are provided to residents.)
