The College is an Almshouse in a unique Grade 1 listed building (1609). The College opens to the public for guided tours from mid-June to mid-September by prior booking. Also, during the year, a number of events are held such as opening at the East Grinstead May Fair. The College receives no government funding, so contributions from visitors are very important. The Guides & Helpers are all volunteers.

By becoming a Friend of Sackville College, you can help in a variety of ways: helping on the days the College is open, for example on the gate or selling souvenirs, welcoming visitors and assisting our team of volunteer guides. Needless to say subscriptions by themselves are most welcome!

Friends also meet on the last Friday of each month to help with garden maintenance and other jobs within the College buildings.

In addition: -

- Free admission to the College
- Newsletters
- Events including a "Friend's" Carol Service
- Discounts on :
  - Tickets for musical events, talks and other events at the College
  - Hiring the public rooms for meetings, receptions and presentations.
